INTRODUCTION

The Uganda Hotel and Tourism Training Institute is a government- owned tertiary institution offering training programs in the areas of tourism and hospitality at Diploma, Certificate and short course levels.

The institute was founded in 1994 as an International Labour Organisation (ILO) project based at Fairway Hotel to support apprenticeship training for the then growing tourism and hospitality industry in Uganda.

In 2015, UHTTI was officially established as an agency of the Ministry of Tourism, Wildlife and Antiquities by the signing into Law the Uganda Hotel and Tourism Training Institute Act of 2015 (UHTTI ACT, 2015)

The institute boasts of an alumni of over 2,000 graduates and continues to excel in providing competent personnel for the hospitality industry locally, regional and globally.

ABOUT

THE COMPETITION

The National Hospitality skills competition is designed to display skills in various trades associated with the tourism and hospitality industry. It is intended to:

- ▶ Raise awareness about the career opportunities in tourism and hospitality.
- ▶ Elevate the image and perception of the sector among youths and key stake holders.
- ▶ Create a platform for talented and skilled students to showcase their skills to the world.
- ▶ It will also showcase Uganda's rich culinary heritage through cookery and service trade competition, in which contestants will be preparing various national culinary delights.
- ▶ Provide the participating institutes with items that will enrich their training centers .

Whereas this year's competition is the first of its kind, its projected to become an annual event, bringing together participants from tourism and hospitality training institutions across the country and eventually the region.
